

World Book Day 2026

Woweee! What an amazing WBD 2026 we had at Coney Hill! From Paddington Bear and Greg Heffley to Snow White, Spiderman, and Matilda, the costumes were incredible — and let's not forget those cosy pyjamas keeping everyone comfy all day! The toilet roll tube characters were super creative too — a big thank you to everyone who joined in, and HUGE congratulations to our winners!

We loved seeing so many smiles, clever outfits, and children sharing their favourite stories with friends. Thanks to all your generous contributions for the costumes, we raised £134.60 for new library books, which will make our library even more exciting and full of adventures for everyone!

How do we promote reading at Coney Hill?

At Coney Hill, we LOVE reading—and we make time for it every single day! Here are just some of the ways we bring reading to life...

“DEAR!” – Drop Everything and Read!

Just as it sounds, whenever we can, we pause, pick up a book, and enjoy some dedicated reading time. It's a firm favourite across the school!

Reading Spines—Our Golden Thread

Our carefully chosen Reading Spines are at the heart of everything we do. Through high-quality fiction and non-fiction texts, our children build rich vocabulary, deepen their understanding of the world, and develop a love of great stories. We are passionate about helping every child discover authors they love, while giving them the lifelong skills to read confidently, fluently, and with real understanding. Our full Reading Spines can be found on our school website.

Book Club—Stories Just for Fun!

Every class enjoys daily Book Club time—a chance to relax, listen, and get lost in a great story. These shared reading moments are full of excitement, and it's not uncommon to hear children pleading, “Just one more chapter!” We love seeing their enthusiasm spill over into requests for more books by the same authors or from the same series!

Reading Rocks Assemblies

Every Wednesday, we come together to celebrate our Authors of the Term. We share and explore extracts from their books, sparking curiosity and lively discussion. You'll also find these books proudly displayed in our library, ready to be borrowed. These assemblies are a fantastic way to inspire children to branch out and discover new favourite authors!
